FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Next Generation Lighting to Represent Universal Lighting Technologies

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (June 4, 2018) – Universal Lighting Technologies, a global leader in commercial lighting and a member of the Panasonic family of companies, recently announced a partnership with Next Generation Lighting to represent Universal’s complete product line across the state of Georgia and North Florida.

Next Generation Lighting has over 100 combined years of lighting experience and provides the highest level of expertise for any type of lighting application. Next Generation Lighting provides the best and most professional service to distributors in its local markets, supporting the region out of two strategically placed offices in Alpharetta and Statesboro, Georgia.

“We’re thrilled to partner with an agency who dedicates themselves so fully to customer service, education and technology,” said Jeff Bristol, Eastern Regional Vice President Distribution Sales at Universal Lighting Technologies. “We are confident their experienced team will continue to set a high standard and expand the reach of Universal’s lighting solutions in the Atlanta and Jacksonville markets specifically, as well as throughout the region.”
